

Attention friends of the

In case you missed, it The Logan County Braves just held its very first Art Auction Fundraiser to support Special Olympics Athletes. The Artists created Art Canvases illustrating:

"What Special Olympics Means to Me"

Now that the auction is over The STUDIO: RTC's Art Connection wanted to offer another option to help raise funds and for EVERYONE to enjoy some of the artwork created.

Including two pieces that went to the state sale and sold for over $200.00 each!!!

Introducing the first ever STUDIO calendar!!!

The artists worked very hard to display their theme. The funds raised will go towards equipment, uniforms, registration fees, transportation, and any fees associated with the Athletes to support their participation in Special Olympics.

Calendars available for $15.00
